Description

A Barocchetto-style chest of drawers in walnut dating from the mid-18th century, from Italy. Characterized by a curved front with two walnut-paneled drawers divided into four sections down the center, it features rounded legs and paneled sides. The apron and legs also feature an undulating design, lending the piece an elegant stylistic harmony typical of the Barocchetto style. The interior is crafted from poplar, while the keyholes and handles, made of carved and gilded bronze, add a touch of refinement and authenticity. This piece stands out for the quality of its materials and masterful craftsmanship, making it a distinctive feature for spaces that call for an authentic example of 18th-century Italian design. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and re-polishing.
