Description

An Italian-made walnut sofa dating from the mid-20th century. The backrest features an elegant design, embellished with a cornice featuring leaf carvings, a central shell, curls, and volutes. The scroll-shaped armrests are also decorated with leaf motifs, giving the sofa a refined look with meticulous attention to detail. The frame is supported by eight turned legs, connected by a turned crossbar, which ensures stability and sturdiness. The seat, armrests, and backrest are upholstered, offering exceptional comfort. This piece stands out for its craftsmanship and the decorative details typical of mid-20th-century Italian design. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this product requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully
