Description

A splendid pair of Italian-made porcelain vases, dating from the second half of the 20th century, each 46 cm tall. Featuring an intense cobalt blue background, they are adorned with elaborate gilded relief decorations, including scrollwork, interlacing patterns, and refined ornamental elements. The front is highlighted by splendid hand-painted floral miniatures depicting arrangements of roses and multicolored flowers, framed by elegant gilded borders. The vases are complemented by substantial side handles in finely crafted gilded bronze, lids with elegant knobs, and richly decorated bronze bases, which lend the pieces a sumptuous appearance. Of particular charm is the deep shade of cobalt blue, achieved through traditional porcelain-making techniques--techniques that are now difficult to
