Description

A charming little Georgian period (18th century) oak corner cabinet, a small, uncommon design consisting of a door with shelves. Beautiful craftsmanship on the door, featuring a combination of different wood species. It includes lemonwood inlays, a mahogany band, and a wood marquetry medallion. Typical of Georgian-era furniture, a thick mahogany top. Superb patina and in perfect condition. It comes with its key, which works. Delivery available in Belgium, France, and internationally. On display in our showroom at 41 Rue Henri Wafelaerts, 1060 Brussels, Belgium. More information and photos available upon request.
