Description

An oil painting on canvas depicting the Adoration of the Magi, dating from the second half of the 18th century. The composition features the Virgin and Child at the center, surrounded by the Magi and their entourage. The rich and intricate scene is complemented at the top by angels and cherubs. Of particular interest is the rendering of the garments, embellished with decorative motifs, and the overall chromatic variety of the work. The painting is set in a contemporary lacquered wooden frame with a gilded inner profile, also dating from the second half of the 18th century. The painting is in good condition, with a stable paint layer and slight signs of aging consistent with its age. Period: second half of the 18th century; Medium: oil on canvas; Painting dimensions: 50 × 65 cm; Dimensions with frame:
