

Sarreguemines Earthenware Dinner Service Featuring The "fedora" Design With Cossacks And Horses

720 EUR

Signature : Paul Utzschneider

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Diameter : 24 cm

Description

Rare Sarreguemines earthenware dinner service featuring the "Fédora" featuring various Cossacks and horses on numerous pieces 19th-century set bearing Paul Utzschneider's period stamp on the back. Decor featuring horses in dressage, harnessed, racing... and Cossacks riding in sleighs, as well as scenes of daily life. Various scenes in the center of the pieces; horses on the rims of the dishes. Green and brown geometric decoration on the rims. Leaf-patterned handles. Set consists of: 15 dinner plates, diameter: 24 cm, 2 rectangular serving dishes, 1 large fish platter, dimensions: 57 x 23 cm, 1 large round platter, diameter: 35 cm, 1 serving platter with leaf motifs, 1 salad bowl, 1 soup tureen, for a total of 22 pieces. Very rare set with interesting decorations. Very good overall condition.

Dealer

Le Psyché d'Antan

Antiquaire généraliste

Tel : 05 53 71 86 42

Mobile : 06 82 47 25 03

Chamouveau - 711 route de l'église

Trentels 47140