

Watchmaker's Workbench

490 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : A restaurer

Material : Solid wood

Description

A beautiful late 19th-century to early 20th-century beech wood watchmaker's workbench. It is in its original condition; some minor repairs are needed but nothing serious: the back panel needs to be tightened, the workbench top trim needs to be re-nailed, and it needs a good cleaning.
