Description

A striking platinum bracelet, characterized by refined, antique-inspired craftsmanship and a profusion of diamonds set throughout the entire piece. The piece features an intricate design composed of finely assembled geometric and decorative elements, creating an elaborate and harmonious pattern inspired by the aesthetics of vintage jewelry. At the center is a vintage-cut diamond weighing approximately 0.40 ct, set within the main element and accentuated by the surrounding geometric composition. The entire bracelet is embellished with single-cut and baguette-cut diamonds, totaling approximately 6.20 ct. The alternation of different cut types creates depth, movement, and a refined play of light across the entire surface of the piece. Platinum, with its naturally white hue,
