Description

Our wooden tabernacle is beautifully decorated with a vibrant blue-and-white color scheme, enhanced by numerous gold leaf accents. The entire piece is adorned with six Corinthian columns featuring twisted shafts, floral motifs, and a carved pediment bearing a radiant angel's head. The door, naturally the central element of the Holy of Holies, is covered by an oil-painted panel depicting Christ in Glory carrying His Cross. Impressive dimensions : 1 meter high by 81 cm wide. Dimensions of the door alone : 30 cm by 14.5 cm. An Italian work from the late 17th or early 18th century. In very good condition--note that the door's hinge mechanism has been removed and the door is now fixed in place. Reference 660
