Description

An elegant rectangular case with rounded corners, entirely covered in light and dark tortoiseshell with warm highlights. The lid is adorned with a gold-piqué design: a scattering of six-pointed stars in the corners, accented by two scalloped garlands arched in a curve, executed with great finesse. In the center, a gold cartouche in the shape of a coat of arms bears an engraved interlaced monogram, yet to be identified. The back features beautiful natural tortoiseshell with large amber and brown patches. The edge is bound in fawn-colored leather with a checkered pattern and raised ribs. It features a push-button closure on the side. The interior is lined with red moiré silk and contains two compartments with leather flaps.
