Description

A spectacular oil lamp inspired by nature and Japanese aesthetics, adorned with a heron amid winding stems, foliage, and flowers. The patinated bronze and metal frame supports a remarkable polychrome marbled glass reservoir, featuring shades of red, green, cream, and brown. It retains its English "Hinks's No. 2 Duplex" burner, manufactured by James Hinks & Son in Birmingham, as well as a satin-finished opaline glass globe with floral decoration and its glass chimney. The lamp is displayed on an elegant oval inlaid wooden pedestal table, decorated with flowers and Japanese-inspired motifs, featuring a spacer shelf and bronze ornaments. A particularly decorative ensemble, in the style of the finest Art Nouveau pieces. In good overall condition, with an antique patina and
