Description

Line VAUTRIN (1913-1997) - Rare bronze belt buckle with plant and floral motifs, circa 1940-1950A superb and rare two-part belt buckle, an iconic work by the "poet of metal," Line Vautrin (1913-1997), created in the 1940s-1950s. Material and technique: Stamped and chiseled bronze featuring an original, nuanced patina with beautiful golden and coppery highlights. Decoration: A symmetrical motif cut in the shape of butterfly wings, richly chiseled with foliage scrolls and flowers. Each element is centered on an openwork rosette in relief. Closure: Central hinged clasp with a slide, characteristic of the artist's jewelry and fashion accessory designs. Condition: Excellent condition for its age. Beautiful, well-preserved antique patina, having undergone no alteration or harsh cleaning. This
