

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

19th-century Flemish Cross In Gold, Silver, And Rose-cut Diamonds

1 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Length : 7

Width : 4

Description

Flemish Cross in Gold, Silver, and Rose-Cut Diamonds - 19th Century
Category: Antique Jewelry / Regional Jewelry
Period: 19th century (ca. 1850-1880)
Style: Regional Jewelry (Normandy / Flanders)
Condition: Excellent condition
A superb Flemish cross (also known as a "butterfly" cross) consisting of three articulated elements, a regional piece of great finesse dating from the second half of the 19th century. This traditional piece consists of a flared upper section with openwork scrolls, a central diamond-shaped section, and a lower pendant. The structure, crafted from guilloché-engraved and hand-cut silver, is delicately accented with yellow gold floral appliqués, creating an elegant two-tone contrast. The piece is adorned with rose-cut diamonds set in closed settings and on closed

Dealer

Place de l'Art

Paintings and art objects

Tel : 0784239920

Mobile : +33784239920

62 rue de Metz

Toulouse 31000

prongs (a characteristic of antique silver settings on a gold background), lending it a soft, authentic sparkle. On the reverse, the upper element retains its two original loops for threading a velvet ribbon through, as was customary when wearing it around the neck. Technical specifications: Metal: Silver and yellow gold elements (18 karat / 750?) Stones: Rose-cut diamonds Structure: Articulated in 3 parts Setting: Bezel-set on closed prongs Fastening: Loops for ribbon on the back Dimensions: 7 cm x 4 cm Gross weight: 15.9 g In very fine condition. The piece has not undergone any excessive modern restoration, retaining all of its period patina and the freshness of its craftsmanship. The joints are in perfect condition. Please contact me for more information; international buyers are welcome.