

Neoclassical Alabaster Vase On A Pedestal

250 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Alabaster

Description

An elegant neoclassical alabaster (or veined marble) cup-and-saucer set featuring a wide, deeply hollowed circular bowl, accentuated by a molded rim with a fluted and softened profile. The bowl rests on an elegantly proportioned, stepped baluster-shaped pedestal, mounted on a tiered circular base. In the tradition of stonemasons who produced similar pieces for the Grand Tour. Diameter: 27.5 cm. Height: 17 cm. This type of piece is typical of Neoclassical productions and the taste for antique-inspired ornamental marbles, prized by collectors from the second half of the 19th century onward to adorn cabinets of curiosities and bourgeois interiors.
