Description

Jef FRIBOULET (1919-2003) - Norman Fisherman at the Window A beautiful and original composition by French painter and sculptor Jef Friboulet, an iconic figure of the Norman School and the Jeune Peinture movement of the 1950s. The work depicts a sailor seated in profile in front of a lattice-paned window, rendered in a powerful Expressionist style with bold black outlines, characteristic of the artist's generous and structured brushwork. The palette of ochre, brown, and dark tones creates an intimate and melancholic atmosphere. Artist: Jef Friboulet (1919-2003) Medium: Oil / mixed media on panel Signature: Signed lower right (Jef Friboulet) Framing: Presented in an original period frame with a double black textile Marie-Louise mat and stained wood moldings
