Description

A beautiful bronze group with a neoclassical theme depicting an allegorical or mythological scene involving a goddess and a cherub. The goddess is depicted seated, clad in a loose, antique-style drape and wearing a wreath of laurel leaves; she appears to be finishing adjusting the brooches that hold her tunic in place, while a young cherub (Cupid?) assists her by holding out a mirror....A very beautiful, unsigned composition, yet strongly in the spirit of the French sculptor Eugène Antoine Aizelin (1821-1902). Generously sized and of high-quality craftsmanship, this beautiful bronze has retained its original "mordorée" patina and is in excellent overall condition. French work dating from the mid-19th century. Note: Shipping to France is available via Colissimo with tracking and insured
