to paint until the end of his life, exhibiting in France, Spain, and many countries around the world. Beginning in 1992, his work--primarily figurative--gave prominence to women through portraits, nudes, tango scenes, bar scenes, and more, rendered in oils on canvas and pastels of great sensitivity. A representative oil on canvas from his body of work, Isabelle in a White Shirt, from 1962, is housed at the Musée des Beaux-Arts in Rennes.
