Description

Elegant Murano glass vase, embellished with refined engravings. The vase is chalice-shaped, with an everted rim, a ringed base, and a molded foot. The uniqueness and elegance of this vase lie in the engraved decorations, both on the body and the base, featuring floral motifs. On the front, there is also a small lunette depicting a scene: a reclining nude figure, likely the god Bacchus, while in front of him, a satyr, depicted in three-quarter view, offers him a bunch of grapes. This vase, of great taste and refinement, will add a touch of class to any setting. Venetian Murano manufacture, late 18th-early 19th century. Dimensions: H x DM 38 x 21 cm
