Description

Antiques - Decorative Arts - 20th Century

Dimensions: 26 x 18 cm, height: 39 cm

Design: Two lions in an overlapping position, supported or framed by an architectural structure adorned with volutes and motifs.

Material: Bronze with a gilded finish and an age-induced patina. Originally placed in a fireplace as andirons to raise the logs, they are now sometimes used as decorative objects or doorstops.

Style: The forms are inspired by the aesthetics of the Regency and

Louis XVI periods.

Wear consistent with age and use.
