Description

Large candelabra, part of an altar tier set, made of wood gilded with gold leaf, with 5 lights. 18th-century period. Good condition for its age; original gilding; some minor wear and signs of age, normal for its age and not serious (see photos). Wrought-iron sockets and holders, also original. The central section features a floral vase motif, framed by broad scrolls of openwork acanthus foliage. Rectangular base made of stained and gilded wood, designed to fit on the step of an altar. It features 5 metal candle holders designed to hold candles. A very beautiful and rare object in its original condition.
