

Paris Porcelain Bowl - Locré Manufactory - Empire Period, 1810-1820.

480 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Length : 37 cm

Height : 33,8 cm

Description

Parisian porcelain soup tureen - Locré Manufactory - Empire Period 1810-1820* Large soup tureen with lid on an oval foot, Locré Manufactory (Manufactory of the Duke of Angoulême), Empire period. The lid handle is shaped like a twisted dolphin and is entirely gilded with gold leaf; the handles feature gilded leaf-motif volutes; the central decoration consists of a radiating star with gilded trefoils on both the body and lid, accented with gold fillets. Very white and lustrous porcelain; original gilding with slight wear consistent with the period. Excellent condition; only slight wear to the gilding on the rim, as shown in the photos. Dimensions: Height 33.8 cm with lid, Length 37 cm. Weight: 3 kg.

Dealer

Oscar&Luigi brocanteurs

Art objects and antiques

Mobile : 00333295714915/00333316003187

121/c, rue Tasso

Napoli 80127