Description

A 19th-century Louis-Philippe-style walnut secretary desk, restored in our workshop and in perfect condition featuring three large drawers on the front with attractive bronze lock plates. The upper section conceals a drop-down desk, revealing an interior consisting of four small drawers in mottled maple and a central compartment. It is topped with a gray marble slab and features beautiful walnut veneers in warm tones. An elegant and functional piece, combining storage space with a small auxiliary desk--a hallmark of Louis-Philippe furniture.
