Description

Beautiful period drawing from the Restoration erade picting a portrait of a young woman in a dress, presented in its period frame of wood and gilded stucco. Possibly a portrait of Marie-Caroline de Bourbon-Sicile (1798-1870), Duchess of Berry; but this is not certain. (See the last photo, a painting by Alexandre-Jean Dubois-Drahonet depicting the young woman). Work of very high quality, certainly the work of a renowned artist who, unfortunately, did not sign the piece. Characteristics: Viewing dimensions: 27.1 x 21.8 cm / Frame: 35 x 29.7 cm Style and period: This antique drawing fits perfectly within the Restoration period (1820s-1830s) in France, as evidenced by the clothing and hairstyle of this beautiful young woman of high social
