Description

A very beautiful pair of cylindrical cups with flat bottoms and slight rims, also known as "Litron." They are decorated with various roses, entirely hand-painted, a motif typical of Limoges production during the 19th century. The handle of each cup, as well as the rim of the drinking edge, is accented with a gold line. The matching saucers feature the same "Limoges rose" design and also have flat bottoms. The rim is sloped and is also accented with a gold line.
