Description

A very attractive pair of armchairs in good condition from the Austrian firm Fischel, made of turned wood in the Art Nouveau style, dating from between 1900 and 1920. Nice patina, some signs of age. Treated against pests. The fluting is original; one armrest is in perfect condition, while the other has two minor chips that do not affect the seat's stability. Both armchairs are very stable. Dimensions: max height 96 cm, seat height 47 cm, max width at armrests 62 cm, seat depth: 50.5 cm.
