Description

A clear glass perfume bottle with slender fluted neck accented with gilt highlights. The bulbous base features white opaline overlay panels cut in Gothic arches, hand-painted with polychrome floral bouquets and framed in gold. Complete with its original faceted and gilt-accented stopper. Bohemia, mid-19th century (circa 1850-1870). H_19.5 cm Diam_6 cm. Very good overall condition. Bohemian overlay glass pieces featuring hand-painted enamel floral reserves exemplify the Romantic taste and extraordinary technical skill of mid-19th-century glassmakers. The delicate execution of the floral motifs set within cut gothic arches reflects the refined standards of luxury dressing table accessories from this region
