

French 19th-century Mounted Opaline Glass Covered Bowl

2 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

A footed covered bowl in opaque white opaline glass. Ornate gilt-bronze mounts featuring a pinecone finial to the lid, a decorative frieze rim flanked by twin side handles, and a fluted pedestal base. France, Restoration (mid-19th century, circa 1830-1860). H_26.5 cm W_31.5 cm (across handles) D_25 cm (bowl). Very good overall condition. This covered centerpiece illustrates the French 19th-century fondness for combining milk-white opaline glass with finely chased gilt-bronze mounts. The stark contrast between the smooth white body and the rich gilded ornamentation yields a highly decorative display piece typical of prestigious interior decoration of the era.
