

Pair Of Late 19th / Early 20th-century Uranite Glass Cylindrical Boxes

1 600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

A pair of small cylindrical trinket boxes or powder jars crafted in yellow-green uranite (uranium) glass. Featuring smooth glass walls with heavy bases, fitted with gilded metal / brass hinged rim mounts. Exhibits intense green fluorescence under ultraviolet (UV) light, characteristic of uranium glass. France or Bohemia, late 19th to early 20th century (circa 1890-1920). H_10.5 cm D_6 cm. Very good overall condition. Uranium glass (ouraline) gained great popularity in late 19th-century Europe for its vibrant yellowish-green tint and striking luminescent reaction under UV light. These hinged cylindrical vanity jars are typical examples of refined Belle Époque dressing table accessories.
