Description

An elegant set of four chairs entirely upholstered in black leather, featuring a graphic and particularly refined silhouette, reminiscent of the Lara chairs by Catellan Itali.Their originality lies in their design, which is entirely upholstered in leather--right down to the legs--creating a monochromatic ensemble of great elegance. The high backs, with their slightly molded rectangular lines, contrast with the suppleness and generous proportions of the seats.A understated, architectural aesthetic, typical of late 20th-century Italian design, that fits just as well in a contemporary interior as in a more classic setting.A beautiful set of four pieces, rarely found complete.Period: 20th centuryMaterial: black leather, frame fully upholstered in leatherSet: 4 chairsCondition: good vintage condition, with
