Description

This stunning weekly planner, crafted from solid mahogany and mahogany veneer, captivates with the timeless elegance of its design and the richness of its grain. It features seven harmoniously proportioned drawers, each fitted with turned wooden knobs and a keyhole, reflecting meticulous cabinetmaking and high-quality traditional craftsmanship. The warmth of the wood, enhanced by a deep, luminous patina, highlights the natural hues of the mahogany, creating a look that is both refined and inviting. The piece rests on small notched legs, typical of 19th-century furniture, which lend it stability and elegance. With its slender silhouette and vertical design, this weekly planner combines functionality and aesthetics, offering generous storage capacity while taking up minimal space.
