Description

Oil on canvas. Signed and dated lower right. In Giuseppe Solenghi's extensive body of work--rich in lyricism expressed through delicate and refined tones and brushstrokes--urban landscapes of Milan and Venetian lagoon vistas predominate, though there are also several rural scenes, primarily from Lombardy, as well as rustic interiors. In this work, the artist depicts the interior of a farmhouse, where humans and animals live together: the scene is imbued with a serene atmosphere of everyday family life, in which the warm sunlight filtering through the open door creates a play of light and shadow on the earth-toned interior. The painting is presented in a mid-20th-century frame. ARARNO0279518
