Description

The '711' sofa, designed in the late 1960s by Tito Agnoli for Cinova, features a wooden frame that combines elegance and functionality. The seat is supported by metal springs, offering comfort and long-lasting durability. The cushion is covered in canvas, while the outer upholstery is red faux leather, which adds a touch of vibrancy and style to the room. The armrests and backrest easily convert into practical side tables, enhancing the piece's versatility. Thanks to its wheels, the sofa is easy to move, allowing for effortless mobility. In excellent overall condition, it shows very few signs of wear, a testament to the care with which it has been maintained. MOSEDI0321766
