Description

This earthenware vase, decorated with three swirl-shaped handles, comes from the Tours factory and dates from the 1930s. The background is a dark turquoise blue, also known as "duck blue," and features stylized golden plant motifs and golden borders; the three handles are also gilded. The vase is signed by Pinon Maurice, the owner and decorator of the Tours earthenware factory. Please note a slight chip in the earthenware, visible in one of the photos.
