Yellow family bowl with peony decoration Glazed porcelain China, apocryphal Yongzheng mark (1722-1735) Modern period Dimensions: Diameter 13.3 cm Condition report: perfect condition Our bowl features an elegant design of pink and blue peonies on an imperial yellow background, glazed over the overglaze. This type of design originated during the reign of Emperor Kangxi (1662-1722), when it was crafted within the walls of the Forbidden City by the finest artisans (an authentic piece is worth hundreds of thousands of euros today). Although modern, this bowl is of fine craftsmanship: when tapped, the body
