

Pair Of Cut Blown-glass Apothecary Bottles - Late 18th Century

300 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Glass

Height : 24 cm

Description

Two blown-glass apothecary bottles that may form a pair, with bulbous bodies carved with floral rosettes and ovals resting on pedestals, and necks tapered to a doucine, carved with flat ribs and facets. Pear-shaped stopper. Pintle marks. Eastern France?, late 18th century. The bottles are in good overall condition (no cracks or chips) but one bottle has a small shock on the neck and the stoppers are damaged (chips). Internal calcium deposits (not visible when the bottles are filled with water). Height: 24 cm
