Description

A beautiful Art Deco goblet made of patinated pressed-molded glass, decorated with a continuous frieze of stylized dogs running around the side. This model was created by René Lalique in 1921, removed from the catalog in 1932, and was not reissued after 1947. Signed "R. Lalique" in the mold, also bearing the engraved inscription "France" and the number "N°

3214." Dimensions: Height: 9 cm Diameter: 23.5 cm Bibliography: Félix Marcilhac, René Lalique - Catalogue Raisonné de l'Oeuvre de Verre, Éditions de l'Amateur. The model is listed and illustrated on page 749 under number 3214. A particularly decorative and sought-after René Lalique piece from the early 1920s, combining opalescent glass with a dynamic animal motif characteristic of Lalique's Art Deco production.
