Description

By Giovanni Volpato (1735-1803) and the Remondini printing house, based in Bassano. Collection of four color-enhanced engravings depicting scenes from the life of Joseph based on the Book of Genesis: Joseph emerges from the cistern; the silver cup is found in Benjamin's sack; Joseph flees from Potiphar's wife's advances; and Joseph's brothers seek grain in Egypt (with freckles). Giovanni Volpato was one of the most famous Italian engravers of his time: he engraved this series on the Story of Joseph during his youth (1765-1768). The inscription and the decorative style of the border, which imitates a rococo-style festooned frame, are characteristic of the Remondini printing house. Italy, Veneto, 18th century. Good condition
