Description

A green opaline covered vase in a baluster shape on a pedestal, resting on a poly-lobed base. The body, foot, and lid are delicately adorned with a polychrome floral design accented with gold, characteristic of 19th-century French decorative art. The vivid, translucent green hue of the opaline, combined with the delicacy of the gilded and enameled ornamentation, gives this piece a particularly decorative presence. Height: 28 cm Period: 19th century, circa 1840-1860 Origin: France Material: green opaline, polychrome enamel decoration, and gilding Style: Louis-Philippe / Napoleon III Type: Decorative lidded opaline vase.
