Description

Coffee table designed by Ross Littell for De Padova in the 1960s and 1970s, characterized by a clean, modern design. The frame is made of chrome-plated metal, while the rectangular clear glass top complements the piece's minimalist aesthetic, making it suitable for a variety of interior settings. Its clean lines and the combination of materials typical of the period make it a perfect piece for spaces that favor a vintage yet contemporary style. MOTATA0326857
