Description

A 1960s bar cabinet made of mahogany-veneered wood, featuring a polyester finish that highlights the wood's natural grain. The top section houses a bar compartment with a drop-down door, decorated with an artistic print that adds a distinctive touch to the piece. The interior of the bar compartment is lined with mirrored glass, creating an effect of depth and brightness. Below the bar compartment, a practical space with hinged doors offers additional storage capacity. The piece is in fair condition and requires some restoration work to restore it to its original splendor. A piece of furniture that embodies the style and functionality of 1960s design.MOMOMO0323641
