

Silver And Vermeil Jam Set, Restoration Period

2 600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

A superb silver jam dish, resting on a quadrangular pedestal topped with four balls, featuring richly chased and openwork decoration depicting two classical scenes. The body is topped by an elegant domed lid, crowned with a swan with outstretched wings, forming a particularly decorative handle. The set features remarkable neoclassical-inspired decoration, characteristic of French silverwork from the first half of the 19th century. The jam jar is accompanied by twelve vermeil spoons, featuring a design of shells and foliage, perfectly matching the set. It retains its original glass interior. Paris hallmarks, 1819-1838, and a large guarantee mark on the set. Total weight of silver and vermeil: 895 g Height: 28 cm A very beautiful set, in good condition.
