

Antique Candy Dish Made Of Hand-cut Crystal With Diamond-pointed Edges

180 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Crystal

Diameter : 16

Height : 22 à la sommité

Description

A candy dish with a faceted crystal lid resting on a circular base. The slightly rounded body is entirely adorned with a regular pattern of hand-crafted diamond points. The lid, crafted with the same motif, is topped with a faceted handle. Originally intended for displaying sugared almonds, candies, and other small sweets, this drageoir can also be used as a decorative piece or included in a collection of antique crystalware. Excellent overall condition. The crystal is clear and brilliant. There are no significant imperfections, except for slight signs of wear consistent with the object's age.
