Description

Louis XV-Style Lady's Writing Table / Desk - Marquetry and Gilded Bronze Elegant Louis XV-style writing table, crafted in marquetry, resting on four curved legs. The rectangular top with swirling contours features beautiful herringbone marquetry, embellished in the center with a floral motif and decorative elements made of various types of wood. It is framed along its perimeter by a brass or bronze moldings. The front features a belt-style drawer, fitted with a bronze keyhole. The side and back panels are embellished with gilded bronze ornaments, which extend elegantly along the curved legs, which are finished with cleats. The piece as a whole features a lovely silhouette characteristic of the Louis XV style, with decorative marquetry in warm tones. Antique piece showing some signs of use,
