

Cylinder-shaped Desk With Inlay On All Sides--louis XVI Style--floral Design

1 000 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Marquetry

Width : 85

Height : 103

Depth : 46

Description

Cylinder-shaped desk with inlay on all sides--Louis XVI style--Floral design A very elegant Louis XVI-style cylinder desk, featuring rich wood inlay work in various woods on all sides. The front is particularly decorative, with its cylinder entirely inlaid with scrollwork, garlands, and floral compositions, arranged around a central medallion. The top, sides, drawers, and legs are also adorned with delicate inlaid motifs, giving the piece a remarkable decorative unity. Opening the cylinder reveals a well-organized interior featuring compartments, shelves, and two small inlaid drawers. A wide drop-down panel forms the work surface, trimmed in the center with fawn-colored leather featuring a gilded border. The upper section features three small drawers, while the lower

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

section has five drawers, providing ample storage space. The desk rests on four tapered straight legs, also decorated with marquetry. The quality and abundance of the marquetry--which extends even to the sides and back--allow this desk to be placed either against a wall or in the center of a room. Style: Louis XV Period: early 20th century Material: marquetry of various wood species Dimensions: H. 103 cm × W. 85 cm × D. 46 cm In good overall condition, with signs of wear and small marks consistent with its age.