Description

Lakeside Landscape - Oil on canvas signed A.M.
- French School, early 20th century A beautiful oil on canvas depicting a vast and particularly peaceful lakeside landscape, likely inspired by a French or Alpine mountain lake. The composition opens onto a wide expanse of blue-green water, bordered in the distance by a succession of rocky and wooded hills. In the foreground, a grassy shore draws the eye toward a group of tall trees that frames the right side of the painting and adds depth and contrast to the scene. The painter paid particular attention to the reflections on the water, the light in the sky, and the various shades of vegetation. The soft, natural color palette combines greens, blues, grays, and luminous tones, lending the entire composition a calm and luminous atmosphere. The work is executed in oil on canvas. The canvas and its antique stretcher are visible on the reverse side. The painting bears a signature or monogram "A.M." in the lower right corner, underlined with a single stroke. An old handwritten inscription is also present on the reverse, on the stretcher. This inscription remains difficult to interpret with certainty and would require further research to potentially identify the artist or the location depicted. The painting is set in a beautiful gilded wooden frame, richly molded and carved with foliage, scrolls, and shells in the Louis XV style. The frame shows a few minor marks and signs of wear consistent with its age. A decorative work of fine quality, interesting both for its lake and mountain landscape and for its elegant gilded frame. Technique: oil on canvas Subject: lakeside landscape, trees, and mountains Signature: monogrammed "A.M." in the lower right corner Proposed date: 20th century, circa 1920 Total dimensions with frame: 45 × 70 cm Condition: generally good condition, with signs of age and wear. Some wear and minor damage to the frame visible in the photographs.
