Description

Impressive Console Table with Shelves and Large Carved Mirror - Napoleon III period, 19th century Impressive Napoleon III-period console table with mirror, made of carved mahogany, featuring particularly rich and spectacular decoration. The console rests on four strongly curved and carved legs, joined by two wide crossbars with undulating contours. The middle band, lavishly carved with scrollwork and foliage, is centered by a remarkable mascarón. It is topped by an elegant veined white marble top, scalloped to follow the curves of the front panel. The upper section features an imposing rectangular mirror set within a molded frame. It is surrounded by a spectacular openwork decoration of volutes, foliage, and sculpted motifs, dominated at the top by a large fantastic mascarón. Two sculpted
