Description

A limestone ridge finial carved in the round, dating from the 18th century. This architectural element consists of a fleur-de-lis surrounded by stylized acanthus leaves, two major components of the Neoclassical ornamental vocabulary under the Ancien Régime. It rests on a molded wooden base painted to imitate later-period Rouge de France marble. Some chipping is noticeable on certain edges, as seen in the photos. Total height : 48 cm Spike height : 40 cm Spike diameter : 24 cm Base : 19 cm x 19 cm Delivery available in France / EU / outside the EU upon request.
