Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Length : 100 cm

Description

North America, Plains region
Leather, dyed porcupine quills, glass beads
Length: approximately 100 cm
Provenance: Bernard Souteyrand Collection
An elongated, tapered leather quiver, wide at the opening and gradually narrowing toward the tip. Long fringes of leather run along one side, extending its silhouette. A decorative longitudinal band combines rows of dyed porcupine quills--primarily yellow--with bands of dark blue glass beads. Blue, orange, red, and white accents punctuate the design and form a geometric polychrome pattern. The use of porcupine quills is a remarkable feature of this piece. Their preparation and application require particularly meticulous work. This ancient technique, rarely seen on quivers, lends the object special interest, enhanced by the combination
