

1940s Elm And Rosewood Table, High-end Design

2 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 200

Width : 106

Height : 80

Description

A vintage work of art that combines timeless elegance with the finest craftsmanship of Italian design. This extraordinary piece of furniture represents a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for collectors and connoisseurs of refined antiques. Table with a boat-shaped base, veneered in rosewood with elm edges, and a top featuring a black mirror, by Permanente Mobili Cantù, 1940; height 80 cm, width 106 cm, length 200 cm. The superb quality of the fine woods and the striking contrast of the black glass lend a unique charm to any prestigious setting. We ship worldwide via FedEx, UPS, or DHL with professional packaging and insurance. The piece is in good overall condition but requires light conservative restoration. Shipping throughout Europe to be arranged. Payment by bank transfer, Visa, or

Dealer

Bruno Bernardi Gallery
Antiquities

Mobile : 00393482430869

Vicolo del Voltone n.11

Rimini 47921

Mastercard.