Description

God the Father and the Dove of the Holy Spirit Wooden wall sculpture Italian Baroque Art Rome, 17th century Carved walnut Dimensions: 72 x 72 cm - depth 28 cm Excellent condition A magnificent depiction of God the Almighty Father, portrayed with open arms to welcome all the souls of believers into the Kingdom of Heaven. The figure powerfully conveys all of His might and is captivating and imbued with spirituality. The artist behind this moving work succeeds in giving the face of the Eternal Father an expression that is both stern and, at the same time, one of infinite goodness. In the Father's arms, the Dove of the Holy Spirit takes center stage, its wings also spread wide to echo the message of the central figure. It is a work of great charm and stands as an excellent example of
